

Maths Teacher Required

Al Islah Girls' High School in Blackburn is looking for a Maths teacher to join their highly successful team for a long-term, part-time role to begin in September 2018.

We require an exceptional teacher of maths, who is passionate about providing the best possible education and care for our girls.

This post involves teaching maths up to GCSE level. Significant training, time and support will be given to be confident in delivering high quality learning. Alongside the upper school teaching it provides an exciting opportunity to develop other teachers who are teaching maths at Key Stage 3.

This position would suit an individual who is passionate about making a real difference to student's life chances and supporting them in achieving their potential. The ability to be creative and use imaginative flair to engage is essential, along with having resilience, drive and high expectations to inspire students to achieve. As we are a growing school it may also provide an opportunity of further leadership opportunities in the future.

Safeguarding, quality and professionalism is at the heart of what we do. Applicants are required to attend a face to face interview, reference checks and an enhanced DBS disclosure.

If you would like to discuss or find out more about this post, please contact Mrs Nikhat Pardesi, (Acting Headteacher), via email: head@alislah.org.uk

To apply please upload an up to date CV and covering letter, of no longer than two sides of A4. The letter should outline why you feel your experience makes you a strong applicant for this exciting opportunity, highlighting areas in which you have shown impact.

Important Notice: In order to apply for the above position all applicants must be eligible to work in the UK, or eligible to apply for a relevant work visa.
